THE CHURCH OF ALL SAINTS

TURNDITCH

DERBYSHIRE

GENERAL INFORMATION

The earliest historical mention as to the foundation of this chapelry is in the Parliamentary Survey of 1650, when it is quoted under Duffield the mother church. In 1691 however, John Walker of Bradley devised in his will all the rest of his lands lying in Turnditch or Hazelwood, to William Hawford and his heirs, subject to the payment, amongst other charges of " 20s. per annum to the Curate or Minister of Turnditch Chapel." The building is of considerable age though, Early English, probably mid thirteenth century similar to that of the Chapel of St. John the Baptist, Belper another chapelry of Duffield.

The registers date from 1783, previous entries appearing in the registers of St. Alkmund, Duffield. These are very shortly to be deposited at the County Record Office, Matlock.

EXPLANATION OF ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS

The memorials have been copied verbatim, including epitaphs if any and have been typed as such except where the symbol / indicates a new line in the original inscription. Where the symbol - - - - is used, those words or letters are eroded and therefore not decipherable. Immediately after each inscription is an indication of the form the memorial takes e.g. (S.H.) would mean that the memorial is a Slate Headstone. The following is a full list of abbreviations used.

B	-	Brass	C	-	Copedstone
G	-	Granite	Cx	-	Coped Cross
Gr	-	Gritstone	Ft	-	Footstone
Lm	-	Limestone	H	-	Headstone
M	-	Marble	L	-	Ledger
S	-	Slate	K	-	Kerbstone
Sa	-	Sandstone	O	-	Obelisk
W	-	Wood	T	-	Tablet
			V	-	Vase
			X	-	Cross

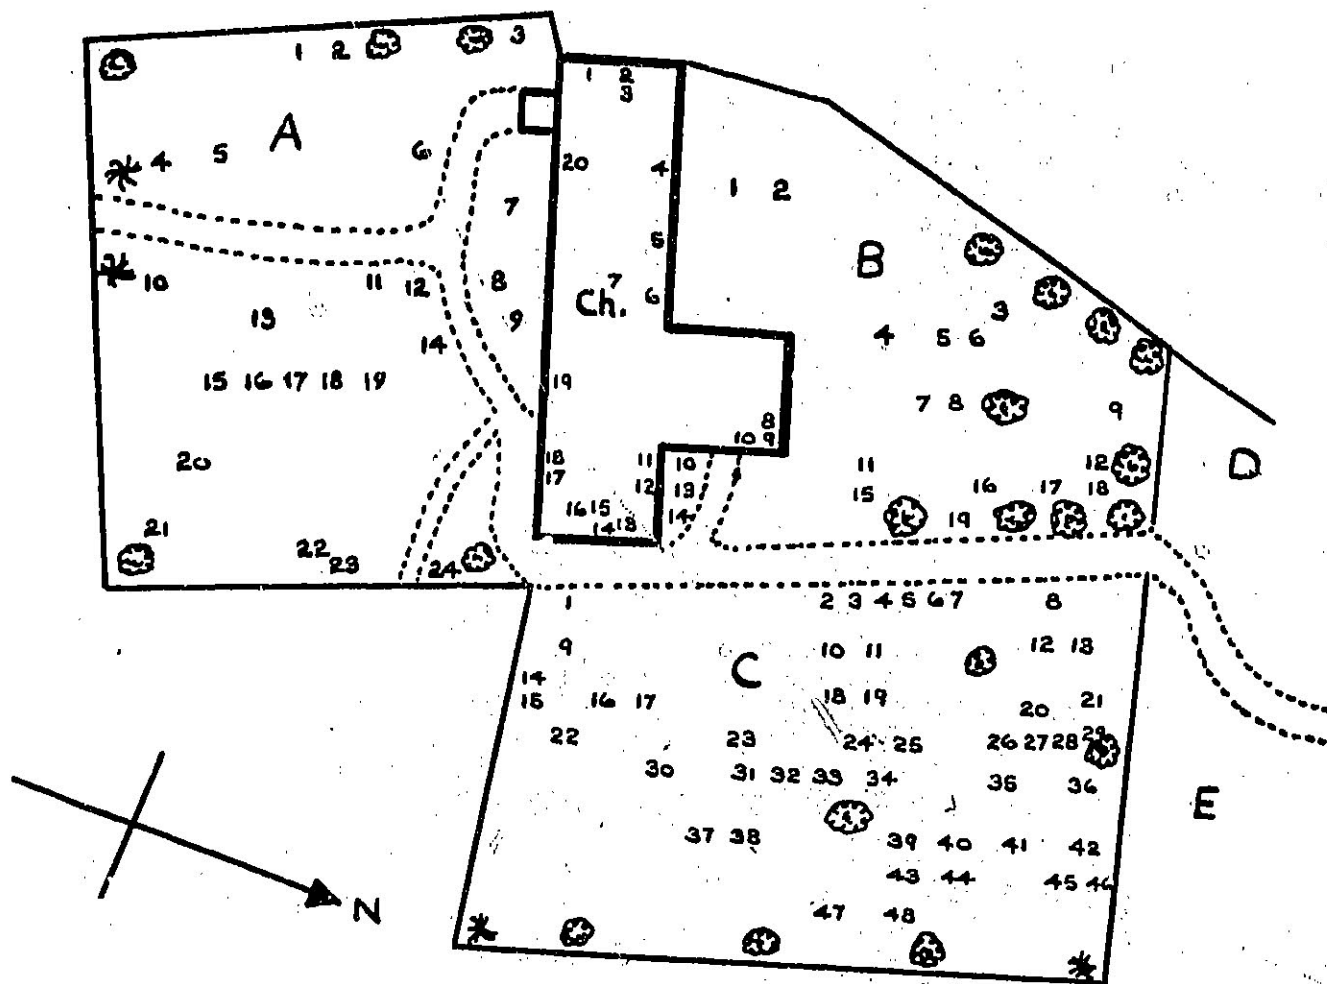

INDICES

The index of names refers to the reference number designated to each memorial according to its area as seen on the plans. All named on each memorial have been indexed including Monumental Masons, which appear separately. The index of place names includes all houses, farms, villages, towns and countries mentioned on the memorials.
